How Can a Godless Society Fail to Be Impacted When There's a Vibrant, Healthy Church in Its Midst?

You are about to begin a study of a powerful and greatly needed epistle which was written almost 2,000 years ago . . . a letter which, if read and heeded, could turn our churches around and thus impact our communities and eventually our nation.

TAKING IT IN

1. All study of the Word of God should be preceded by prayer. This is God's Book and the truths within it are made plain by the ministry of the Spirit of God. Ask God to open the eyes of your understanding, to lead you and guide you into all truth, and to cleanse and nourish you through the "washing of water with the word" (Ephesians 5:26).
2. In the Appendix of this workbook you will find a copy of the book of Titus. We refer to these as Observation Worksheets. These are simply the text of the English Standard Version printed double-spaced.
  - a. Read your Observation Worksheets on Titus and mark (color) in a distinctive way every reference to the author and to the recipient. Use two distinct colors or markings so you can easily distinguish, at a glance, one from the other. (For instance, you might color the references to the author in blue and those to the recipient in orange.) As you identify each one, make sure you also mark or color every synonym and pronoun which refers to the author and to the recipient in their distinctive ways. Mark only the singular pronouns and synonyms.
  - b. List what you learn from marking references to the author in chapters 1–3 on the page provided at the end of the lesson. Only record information which describes the author, not his instructions.
  - c. Record the author's name on "Titus at a Glance" found at the end of this lesson.

- d. Now list what you learn about the recipient on the page provided at the end of this lesson. Again, do not record instructions.
3. Evaluate the facts about the author and recipient. Does anything give you clues as to where Paul or Titus were, where they had been previously, where either would be later, when it was written? Record on “Titus at a Glance” what you learned about the historical setting.
4. Now list Paul’s instructions to Titus. As you read, you might want to put a red arrow like this → in the margin next to each of these statements.

5. In Titus there are three major key words: doctrine, works, and sound.
  - a. Read your Observation Worksheets again and mark each in a distinctive color or way.
  - b. Note these key words on “Titus at a Glance.”
6. How would you summarize the theme of the entire book? Use the key words. Record this on “Titus at a Glance.” A Book Theme describes the main content—the subject, person, or event that is the predominant topic(s).
7. Look over the “Titus at a Glance” chart. You will see there is a place to record Chapter Themes. A Chapter Theme describes the main content of a chapter—the subject, person, or event that is the predominant topic in that specific chapter.

Write out each chapter theme using words from the text. Record these in the space provided on your Observation Worksheets as well as on “Titus at a Glance.”

LIVING
IT OUT

1. As you consider what you have learned, what do you think would happen in a person’s life or in the life of church members if people lived their lives according to what is taught in this book?

2. We are so proud of you. As you close your workbook and go about your week, think about all you have seen. Ask God what He wants you to learn from this study.

Chapter Theme _____

- PAUL, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness,
- 2 in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began
  - 3 and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior;
  - 4 To Titus, my true child in a common faith:
Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.
  - 5 This is why I left you in Crete, so that you might put what remained into order, and appoint elders in every town as I directed you—
  - 6 if anyone is above reproach, the husband of one wife, and his children are believers and not open to the charge of debauchery or insubordination.
  - 7 For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain,
  - 8 but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined.
  - 9 He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it.

- 10 For there are many who are insubordinate, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision party.
- 11 They must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for shameful gain what they ought not to teach.
- 12 One of the Cretans, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.”
- 13 This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,
- 14 not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth.
- 15 To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled.
- 16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work.

TITUS 2

Observation Worksheet

Chapter Theme _____

BUT as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine.

- 2 Older men are to be sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness.
- 3 Older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers or slaves to much wine. They are to teach what is good,
- 4 and so train the young women to love their husbands and children,
- 5 to be self-controlled, pure, working at home, kind, and submissive to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be reviled.
- 6 Likewise, urge the younger men to be self-controlled.
- 7 Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity,
- 8 and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us.
- 9 Bondservants are to be submissive to their own masters in everything; they are to be well-pleasing, not argumentative,
- 10 not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior.
- 11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people,
- 12 training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age,
- 13 waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,

- 14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.
- 15 Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

TITUS 3

Observation Worksheet

Chapter Theme _____

- REMINDE them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work,
- 2 to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people.
  - 3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another.
  - 4 But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared,
  - 5 he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit,
  - 6 whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,
  - 7 so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
  - 8 The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people.
  - 9 But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless.
  - 10 As for a person who stirs up division, after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him,

- 11 knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned.
- 12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.
- 13 Do your best to speed Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; see that they lack nothing.
- 14 And let our people learn to devote themselves to good works, so as to help cases of urgent need, and not be unfruitful.
- 15 All who are with me send greetings to you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all.
